Sports Partnership Update

Mr Beresford met with Ailsa Hall from the School Sports Partnership on Wednesday. We now have a full itinerary of the different festivals and competitions for the rest of the year. Our children will take part in as many of these as possible beginning with the swimming gala on Monday 5th February.

JRSO update

As promised the JRSO newsletter will be in school bags today. Thank you to Councillor Surtees and our amazing children for producing this.

Bacon/Sausage Butty morning

A gentle reminder that we need order forms returning if you would like join us at our Bacon Butty morning. We have extended the reply date to next Friday. Please complete and return the slip below so food can be ordered.

Celebration Worship and Class Worship

A big thank you to all parents and families that have joined us this week in Worship. It was great to see so many of you there as it plays a huge part in school life.

Family Friday

A reminder that Family Friday will be taking place on Friday 2nd February. This is an event children and staff look forward to so it would be great to see as many families there as possible.

Friday 9th February – 8.30-9.30am 'Bacon/Sausage Butty Morning

Family name: .....

We would like (please tell us the number of butties you would like)

Adult @ £2.50	..... sausage .....bacon
Child @ £1.50	.....sausage .....bacon

I have enclosed £.....

Please send the slip and the money back to school by Wednesday 31st January. Thank you.

(We thought this would be a more efficient way rather than collecting money on the morning. We will keep a note of how many butties your family has ordered)
