Emotional Well-Being

Take some time out of your day to do something you enjoy - this could be watching a TV programme, playing a game, reading a book, going for a walk, baking with your family, drawing a picture etc.

Play a couple of phonics games

In school we often play the flash cards speed trial game – you can select the individual graphemes to practise to suit your child’s needs. In class we have covered all the sounds up to set 9 in Phase 3 with the additional sounds from sets 10-15 oo, ar, or, ow, oi, ay, ou, ie, ea, oy, aw, ew, oe, a_e, e_e, i_e, o_e and u_e.

We also use tricky word trucks, buried treasure and picnic on pluto regularly.

Special Investigation

Watch my video on class story.

Can you write a story about where the penguin came from, what happened on his journey and what will happen next.

Remember to write in full sentences and use capital letters, full stops and finger spaces. Try to use good describing words in your writing and sound out any spellings you’re not sure of!

You might want to watch the Lost and Found story on YouTube to give you some ideas.

Before you start writing you might want to make a plan for your writing – think about what will happen in the beginning, the middle and the end of your story.

Once you have finished writing your story, you might want to draw some illustrations (pictures) to go along with your story!

Collective Worship – Is it fair?

Do you think it was it fair what happened to Joseph? This morning we are going to find out more about Joseph's life in prison.

'Hi, my name is Brian, and I'm the butler to the Pharaoh. Burt, Pharaoh's' baker and I were thrown in prison not that long ago. It was a misunderstanding for me, but I'm not sure why Burt was here. One night we both had a dream; they were very confusing. Joseph said that if we told him our dreams, he'd ask God if he'd give Joseph the meanings. I'd dreamt of a vine with three branches, buds on the branches became clusters of grapes. I crushed the grapes and gave them to the Pharaoh to drink. Burt said that he had three baskets on his head, in the baskets were all kinds of bread and cakes. Birds ate the bread and cakes out of the baskets on the baker's head. Joseph told Burt that the birds were the Pharaoh and the baskets represented time, within three days the Pharaoh was going to execute him. I, on the other hand, was more fortunate, the wine in the cup meant that the Pharaoh would give me back my job in three days. It was great 'coz that's just what happened, well not great for old Burt. Joseph asked me to explain his story to Pharaoh to see if Pharaoh would release him.'

What will happen to Joseph? Will Brian tell the Pharaoh of Joseph and will Pharaoh release him? Even though Joseph hadn't done anything wrong he still found himself in prison and willing to help others. He still had hope that one day life would be better than it currently was. Let's just hope that Brian remembers to tell Pharaoh.

Time to reflect

- Is it possible to be positive and happy even when life seems unfair?
- Some children who have very little are genuinely happier than some children who have lots, is that fair?

Reflection (Prayer)

Dear God

We know that life isn't always fair, even though it isn't our fault. Let us be positive even in those times.

Amen
