

Emotional Well-Being:

Taking time for yourself to do something that relaxes you is so important. I personally like to read books set in foreign countries to relax me; it makes me feel like I am having an adventure from my sofa! Today, I would like you to spend some time thinking about what makes you feel relaxed and happy. Maybe you like reading, colouring, artwork, listening or playing music or maybe you like chatting with your family. Whatever it is that you like to do, I would like you to spend some time today doing something that relaxes you. You can send me a picture on Class Dojo if you like as well!

English:

We are going to be writing a character description of Grendel. I want you to try and do this without a word bank this time. Don't worry about the length, remember I prefer a piece of writing with more grammatical details to engage the reader, then pages of writing without.

Grammatical Expectations:

- Capital letters, finger spaces and full stops.
- Fronted Adverbials
- Paragraphs
- Conjunctions

Maths:

Today we going to complete our shape assessment. Please do this by yourself. Remember that it is ok not to know, but it is not ok not to try. This is just so I can see what we need to work on. Do not worry about it, just try your very best.

Collective Worship:

We have heard from Joseph, Levi and Reuben. Today we are hearing from their friend, a boy called Judah.

“My name is Potiphar, I’m Egyptian, and I’m very, very important. I am very rich, I have a very large house, many servants, and I’m very important. It is important that you know that I’m important. I advise Pharaoh on many things, top secret things. Anyway, enough about important me, I bought Joseph off some Ishmaelite traders, he was young and looked intelligent. I was so impressed by him that he was soon in charge of the other servants; he even ended up looking after my money. My wife told me that he’d given her the eye. In MY house! To think that I trusted him! He’s in prison now. He was in charge of my whole house, seems like he thought he could have my wife as well.”

Potiphar’s wife had made the whole thing up, but Joseph once again found himself alone and, this time, it most certainly wasn’t his fault. Whilst in prison, Joseph worked hard and won the respect of the prison guard. The guard saw that Joseph was a good, honest and wise man. Eventually, Joseph was put in charge of the other prisoners.

Can it get any worse for Joseph? We began the story with Joseph as dad’s favourite, dreaming and wearing a great coat. But Joseph didn’t blame his circumstances, sitting in his cell moping around and complaining, telling everyone that his dreams were now shattered, instead he chose to work hard and prove himself to the prison guard.

‘Hi, my name is Brian, and I’m the butler to the Pharaoh. Burt, Pharaoh’s baker and I were thrown in prison not that long ago. It was a misunderstanding for me, but I’m not sure why Burt was here. One night we both had a dream, they were very confusing. Joseph said that if we told him our dreams, he’d ask God if he’d give Joseph the meanings. I’d dreamt of a vine with three branches, buds on the branches became clusters of grapes. I crushed the grapes and gave them to the Pharaoh to drink. Burt said that he had three baskets on his head, in the baskets were all kinds of bread and cakes. Birds ate the bread and cakes out of the baskets on the baker’s head. Joseph told Burt that the birds were the Pharaoh and the baskets represented time, within three days the Pharaoh was going to execute him. I, on the other hand, was more fortunate, the wine in the cup meant that the Pharaoh would give me back my job in three days. It was great ‘coz that’s just what happened, well not great for old Burt. Joseph asked me to explain his story to Pharaoh to see if Pharaoh would release him.’

What will happen to Joseph? Will Brian tell the Pharaoh of Joseph and will Pharaoh release him? Even though Joseph hadn’t done anything wrong he still found himself in prison and willing to help others. He still had hope that one day life would be better than it currently was. Let’s just hope that Brian remembers to tell Pharaoh.

Reflection (Prayer)

(Dear God)

We know that life isn’t always fair, even though it isn’t our fault. Let us be positive even in those times. (Amen)
