

Emotional Well-Being:

Taking time for yourself to do something that relaxes you is so important. I personally like to read books set in foreign countries to relax me; it makes me feel like I am having an adventure from my sofa! Today, I would like you to spend some time thinking about what makes you feel relaxed and happy. Maybe you like reading, colouring, artwork, listening or playing music or maybe you like chatting with your family. Whatever it is that you like to do, I would like you to spend some time today doing something that relaxes you. You can send me a picture on Class Dojo if you like as well!

English:

Today we are going to be writing a short recount as though YOU are experiencing an earthquake. Imagine what it would feel like, what you could see and hear.

You can use this sentence to get you started:

One morning I was sat in my room when all of a sudden...

Maths:

Today we are going to be doing some fun problem solving!

Expectations:

- Everyone will try their best.

Collective Worship:

Once upon a time if a person wanted to find out about another culture, then they would have to travel to the country, ask questions and experience life in that culture. One of the many benefits of a multicultural society is that we can experience and understand different cultures right here on our doorstep. Living alongside people of different nationalities can help us understand why we all have different beliefs and customs. Living alongside people of different nationalities should also help us all to understand those things that we all have in common. We all like to have friends, we all like to be listened to and we should all be treated with respect.

This week we started by looking at the differences in our families, the differences in our class and the differences in our school. We looked at the way those differences can be used to help us to work together. Yesterday we looked at the differences across the variety of cultures that have settled in the United Kingdom. Today we have come full circle, understanding the differences between people of different cultures and nationalities can help us to discover what we all have in common.

Time to reflect

How can understanding our differences help us to discover what we have in common?

What are some of the differences you have explored this week?

What are those things that we all have in common?

Reflection (Prayer)

(Dear God)

We know that we have many things in common, and we are also aware and thankful for differences. We know it is an important part of our families, our schools, our communities and ultimately our world. Let us, this week, think about, understand and learn to live with our differences in a respectful and tolerant way. (Amen)

Music:

Have another listen to Bob Marley's song Three Little Birds.

Today you are going to make your own dance moves to this song! Try and find the beat as you do so!

Work:

Maths:

Mastery

Transfer the information from the weekly awards table to the table below.

Class	Number of awards
YR
Y1
Y2	6
Y3
Y4
Y5
Y6

Present the information in a bar graph.

The graph shows how many minutes Sam spent watching TV at home last week.

Watching TV

The bar graph displays the number of minutes Sam spent watching TV each day of the week. The vertical axis is labeled 'Time in minutes' and ranges from 0 to 120 in increments of 20. The horizontal axis is labeled 'Day of the week' and lists Monday through Sunday. The bars represent the following values: Monday (40), Tuesday (60), Wednesday (28), Thursday (18), Friday (90), Saturday (100), and Sunday (90).

Day of the week	Time in minutes
Monday	40
Tuesday	60
Wednesday	28
Thursday	18
Friday	90
Saturday	100
Sunday	90

On which day did Sam watch the most TV?
How many minutes of TV did Sam watch on Wednesday?
How many more minutes did Sam watch on Friday than on Tuesday?
How many fewer minutes did Sam watch on Thursday compared to Sunday?
