

May we give them the roots to grow and the wings to fly

SEND and Pupil Premium Provisions in English

Quality First approaches are used to enable all children to access our history curriculum.

Pre-teaching <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Open access to areas of Lexia and EdShed to allow children to learn at home.• Cumulative curriculum that builds upon prior knowledge• Bitesize/Khan Academy/SPAGShed videos when appropriate.• Word mats, sentence starters, model texts	Books and resources <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Books available around school with free choice to take home• Support for teachers with interventions for specific needs• Larger font, braille and dyslexia friendly fonts available• Coloured overlays• Sound buttons
Newsletters and open evenings <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Phonics open evenings• Phonics screening open evenings• Year 6 SATs open evening.• Book vouchers given out for free• Children have access to the library through school• Free events are listed on the newsletter that relate to English• Free trips to local amateur productions of plays and musicals	Multisensory <ul style="list-style-type: none">• English lessons will be differentiated to accommodate various learning styles and abilities, with additional support provided as necessary through intervention programs or teaching assistants.• Pupil Premium funding will be utilized to enhance literacy enrichment programs, such as additional reading resources, such as Lexia, Reading Plus and Vocabulary Ninja• Sounds buttons to support short term memory.• Use visual aids such as charts, diagrams, and graphic organizers to represent information visually.• Incorporate color-coding for different elements of language, like parts of speech or sentence structures.• Provide visual prompts and cues during reading activities to aid comprehension.

May we give them the roots to grow and the wings to fly

